SACRAMENTO COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT RECOVERS FIREARMS DURING COMPLIANCE CHECKS

Sacramento, CA – Over the past 90 days, officers from the Sacramento County Probation Department have recovered 17 guns and three replica firearms in the possession of offenders, illegally. The firearms could potentially be used in illegal activity and are a danger to the community. The firearms were discovered through compliance checks and searches conducted by probation officers to ensure clients were following their court ordered conditions. These searches led to the recovery of the firearms and resulted in 15 arrests.

The firearms recovered include:

- Four .45 caliber semi-automatic pistols
- Three 9mm semi-automatic pistols
- Three .40 caliber semi-automatic pistols
- Two .22 caliber rifles
- Two 12 gauge shotguns
- One .38 caliber revolver
- One .380 semi-automatic pistol
- One 20 gauge shotgun with a sawed off barrel

Of those recovered:

- Two had been reported stolen
- Two had extended or large capacity magazines
- One had the serial numbers removed
- One had a 50 round drum magazine

Arrests made included:

- Five adults on probation
- Three adults on Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS)
- Two juveniles on probation
- Two adults on Mandatory Supervision
- One adult prohibited from possessing a firearm
- One adult on parole
- One adult who was the subject of an active felony warrant

The Sacramento County Probation Department conducts compliance checks and searches as part of our commitment to reducing gun violence and keeping our community safe.
