 6. YOUTH DETENTION FACILITY POPULATION REPORT:
Probation’s Daily Population Report was passed out to the attendees. A question was raised regarding the “On Hold” status next to a few of the listed group homes. Chief Seale stated, for whatever reasoning whether it be licensure, conditions, administrative, etc., we as a department have withheld youth from these group homes until we can assure youth safety and security.

Commissioner Hillary Gaines asked if the 300 youth currently in the Youth Detention Facility is pending placement and what is their length of stay. Presiding Judge Borack stated she is reviewing the cases and is establishing an additional calendar for crossover youth. She will be attending an executive team meeting on April 30, 2018 to discuss the Crossover Youth Practice Model and address where we are and what we can do to improve the model.

Commissioner Gaines asked if it is true that Probation is not required to use short-term residential treatment programs (STRTP). Chief Seale stated no. Probation uses STRTP.

Presiding Judge Borack announced she will be hearing the cases that involve crossover youth who had an active dependency case at the time the 602 petition was filed. She also announced the newly improved caseload system will roll out at end of May 2018, where a youth will be seeing one judge from start to finish instead of appearing before four different judges for each hearing process.

Chief Seale mentioned he would like the Commission to discuss the mission as well as defining purpose and goals at the next meeting.
