FIREARMS SEIZED DURING PROBATION SEARCH

Sacramento, CA – On February 6, 2018, the Sacramento County Probation Department seized three firearms, hundreds of rounds of ammunition, high capacity magazines, and methamphetamine during a routine compliance check in the 3500 block of Williams Way in Sacramento.

James Harvey Jeffrey, age 21, was arrested and booked into the main jail on numerous charges, including Possession of Controlled Substances While Armed with Loaded Firearm, Possession of a Firearm by a Felon, Receiving Stolen Property, and Felon in Possession of Ammunition.

“The Probation Department remains dedicated to removing illegal weapons from the hands of felons”, said Assistant Chief Probation Officer Marlon Yarber. “Conducting compliance checks and searches is one way in which we are committed to reducing gun violence and keeping our community safe.”

Jeffrey is scheduled for arraignment on February 8, 2018.
