

OUTCOME MEASURES BEING TRACKED IN AB 109 DATA REPORTS

- Jail incarceration trends which includes number of AB 109 inmates, number of inmate custody days, average daily jail population, total jail system inmate average daily population, CDCR projected AB 109 inmates
- Penal Code Section 1170(h) sentencing which includes number of offenders sentenced to county jail with mandatory supervision, number of offenders sentenced to county jail only and number of offenders sentenced to mandatory supervision only, monthly average and yearly total of projected CDCR AB 109 inmates, aggregate length of sentence and breakdown, county jail only sentence breakdown, mandatory supervision only sentence breakdown
- County jail prison inmate demographics and offense characteristics which includes gender, age, ethnicity, residency, and commitment offense
- State Parolees, Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) and Penal Code 1170(h) inmates booked into the county jail system which also includes number of offenders released into alternative custody programs
- Number, risk assessment score, and supervision levels for Post Release Community Supervision (PRCS) offenders handled through the Sacramento Probation Department which also includes demographic and offense characteristics, number of PRCS warrants issued while offender is supervised and revocation hearings requested by the Probation Department, number of PRCS offenders who completed supervision and had their case closed for having no violations
- Number of county jail prison, parole revocation and PRCS offenders receiving services while in custody or under community supervision
- Number and type of Pretrial defendant interviews, approvals and denials for the Sheriff's Pretrial Supervision Program which include offender demographics and offense information, offender outcomes, supervision days and fees paid at discharge
- Number of Home Detention Electronic Monitoring Program applications, approvals and denials including offender demographics and offense information, supervision days and program fee trends, offenders returned to custody and program completion trends and other services provided
- Number of county jail prison, parole revocation and flash incarceration inmates receiving mental health and other services while in custody, Sheriff's Department AB 109 inmate assessments, counseling, rehabilitation, treatment services, and reentry services, benefit eligibility and transitional housing assistance
- Number of Probation Department Post Release Community Supervision and Mandatory Supervision offenders participating in Probation Department Services at the Adult Day Reporting Centers including offender treatment, supportive counseling, benefit eligibility and transitional housing assistance.
- Track and report the number of misdemeanor and felony arrests and convictions for offenders while in programs, and after release from programs, incarceration and supervision to measure recidivism