Agenda Item	Presenter(s)
1. Chair Update	Marlon Yarber, Chair
The Chair welcomed the committee and guests. The Chair mentioned a concern with the State budget. Potential for growth, hopefully Sacramento's allocation increases. Recently submitted an interest letter to the Office of Youth and Community restoration for less restricted programming. The hope is it might assist us with transitional housing RPF. First VOYA (Valley Oak Youth Academy) youth participated in community outreach program. The department is collaborating with the County Animal services and Sacramento City Parks and Recreation.

4. ACTION ITEM: Meeting Frequency	Nina Acosta
Nina Acosta suggested we transition from quarterly meeting instead of monthly meetings. The original intent for this subcommittee was to address the realignment needs of receiving the DJJ population, which they are in place now. Moving it quarterly instead of monthly would allow for more Agenda Items. The past month it has been hard to fill in agenda items. Community members had different suggestions on what the meeting should be set for. Everyone agreed to keep the meetings Quarterly with the addition on a February meeting. The set schedule would be January, February, April, July, and October.

5. ACTION ITEM: Considerations of Delegates for Community Members	JJCC Subcommittee Members
The Chair asked if this body supports the idea of delegates for community members. Member Matulia stated each member should nominate their own delegates and take account of them. County Counsel Rick Heyer reminded everyone the process to get it approved. The parent body of JJCC subcommittee would need to approve the idea of alternates and want some voice of who those alternates would be. If approved, it wouldn't happen before the next JJCC meeting. Member Ibarra suggested she would delegate someone from her organization with the same level of skills working with the youth and community. Member Gray believes going through the process of selecting delegates is worth it, and the delegate who would take his place would have the same level of work experience, same position, and same perspective. County Counsel Rick Heyer suggested to have bylaws set in place before presenting it to the parent committee. Member Matulia stated he had a lot of board experience and volunteered to draft up the bylaws to be able to present to the parent body. Motion for Delegates of Community members was approved. AYES: Raechael Ibarra, Jacqueline White, Shanalle Patterson, Nina Acosta, John Grimes, Jenny Ng, Richard Matulia, and Judge Dena Coggins NOES: None ABSTAIN: Chief Marlon Yarber RECRUSAL: None
