In order to be in compliant with these populations, housing units will need to be evaluated for reopening. Yolo County Probation is working with Sacramento County Probation for a potential contract for bed space for their youth. Due to the numbers being low in Yolo County, it would be more beneficial for the youth in regards to services and beneficial to Yolo County's budget. The VOYA Jobs Program started the week of November 21st and there are currently youth participating.

Agenda Item	Schedule	Duration	Presenter(s)

The workshop would be during evening hours, 5:30pm – 6:30pm. Thursday, January 5th was selected for the workshop and participation from members is strongly encouraged. It was agreed upon the applications should have a due date towards the end of January.
4. Budget Planning Discussion	2:40 – 3:00	20 minutes	JJCC Subcommittee Members
Assistant Chief Probation Officer Wherry shared growth requests that departments would need to complete for Probation to submit for the following fiscal year. SCOE will have an increase and will need to discuss existing contracts. Behavioral Health clinicians have a 1 to 10 ratio and to maintain that ratio, they will need to submit a growth request for an additional 2 clinicians for a total of 5 clinicians. For each department's growth request related to the grant funding, Probation will need to submit a growth request in tandem.
5. Service Coordinator/Community Advocate Update	3:00 – 3:15	15 minutes	Josef Gray / Nina Acosta
Josef Gray and Nina Acosta met to draft a job description and what the position would look like housed under Behavioral Health. Challenges discussed were the position would be located at YDF instead of a neutral location for the youth and families and the process of creating the position could take over a year with the County. Josef Gray has a future meeting scheduled with SCOE to discuss a job description with their department and what potential the position may have housed under SCOE. If the position were to be housed under Behavioral Health, there is the possibility of billing Medi-Cal which would assist with costs. The type of lived experience required for peer certification with Behavioral Health could create a barrier. Another alternative to fill the position is to contract with a vendor to provide the service.
